

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, severe weather strikes all parts of the State of Wisconsin, day and night, with significant impact upon all those who are affected; and

WHEREAS, a record 62 tornadoes touched down in 2005, including 27 tornadoes on August 18, 2005; and

WHEREAS, receiving weather advisories and warnings as soon as they are issued by the National Weather Service saves lives and protects property; and

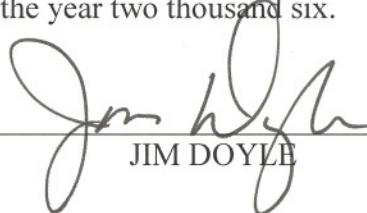

WHEREAS, the National Oceanic & Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Weather Radio, the voice of the National Weather Service, allows citizens in the State of Wisconsin to receive weather information immediately, and it is essential that we increase awareness of NOAA Weather Radio;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jim Doyle, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim May 17, 2006 as

NOAA WEATHER RADIO ALL-HAZARDS AWARENESS DAY

and I commend this observance to all citizens

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this ninth day of May in the year two thousand six.
